The Counselor Education Program at Fresno State includes a masters of science degree in counseling with three options in 1) Student Affairs and College Counseling, 2) School Counseling, or 3) Marriage, Family and Child Counseling (CACREP accredited) 4) Clinical Rehabilitation & Mental Health Counseling (CACREP accredited). The program also includes the K-12 School Counseling Pupil Personnel Services credential. The successful candidate will teach courses in the Marriage, Family, and Child Counseling track as well as core courses in counseling.

Required Education:

An earned doctorate (Ph.D. or Ed.D.) in Counselor Education or Marriage, Family and Child Counseling preferably from a CACREP accredited institution (or equivalent) with an emphasis in Marriage & Family Therapy/Counseling or other closely-related discipline is required; however, applicants nearing completion of the doctorate (ABD) may be considered. For continued employment in the tenure track position, the doctorate must be completed by January 1, 2019.

Required Experience:

1) Experience engaging in the practice of Marriage & Family Therapy/Counseling; 2) Licensed or eligible for licensure as a marriage & family therapist in the state of California 3) Ability to demonstrate a commitment to working effectively with faculty, staff, and students from diverse ethnic, cultural, and socioeconomic backgrounds.

Preferred Qualifications:

1) Teaching experience at the undergraduate or graduate level; 2) Professional identity association with the American Counseling Association; 3) Specific teaching interests in law and ethics, child and adolescence.

Application Procedures:

Review of applications will begin Monday November 6, 2017, and will continue until the position is filled. To apply, applicants must complete an on-line application at jobs.csufresno.edu and attach the following: 1) a cover letter specifically addressing required education, experience, and preferred qualifications; 2) a curriculum vitae; and 3) a list of three professional references (where possible, please provide personal cell phone numbers). Finalists will be required to submit three current letters of recommendation and official transcripts.
