

Opportunity at GONZAGA UNIVERSITY in beautiful Spokane, WA.

The Department of Counselor Education invites applications for a full time, tenure-track faculty position to teach graduate students in the Department of Counselor Education programs beginning August 28, 2018. REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS: Doctorate in Counselor Education or closely related degree; an understanding of the mission of a Catholic, Jesuit institution and a willingness to embed those qualities into teaching; at least one year experience teaching graduate students in Counselor Education; evidence of applied practice in counseling; at least one year experience supervising master's level students; licensed or license eligible in Washington state and a demonstrated ability and interest in leading peers on a project on a long-term basis as part of shared leadership for a program and school. PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Strong background/training in multicultural counseling, group process, research and statistics, and Counselor Education core courses; strong interpersonal and collaboration skills; and strong spoken and written communication.

To apply or view the complete position description, please visit our website at www.gonzaga.edu/jobs. Applicants are required to complete an online application. Questions about this position may be directed to Dr. Addy Wissel, wissel@gonzaga.edu. For assistance with your online application, contact Human Resources at (509) 313-5996. Position closes on November 10, 2017, midnight, PST.

Gonzaga University is a Jesuit, Catholic, humanistic institution, and is therefore interested in candidates who will contribute to its distinctive mission. Gonzaga University is a committed EEO/AA employer and diversity candidates are encouraged to apply. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to their disability status and/or protected veteran status.