

Assistant Professor of Counseling
(Tenure-track; School Counseling specialty)

Hood College invites applications for a tenure-track, Assistant Professor position in our new Counseling M.S. degree program, housed within the Psychology and Counseling Department, to commence August 2018. Candidates should possess a Ph.D. or Ed.D. degree in Counselor Education and Supervision from a CACREP-accredited doctoral program, and have a School Counseling specialization (those who are ABD or from an associated field - psychology, social work, human development - but who taught for at least one year in a CACREP-accredited program prior to July 2013 will also be considered). The position requires evening and summer teaching, and candidates are expected to exhibit a strong commitment to excellence in teaching, as well as be able to involve undergraduate and graduate students in their research area. Qualified candidates should submit an electronic application at www.hood.edu/jobs that includes a cover letter, a CV, a teaching philosophy, a statement of research interests and needs, three letters of recommendation, and two research reprints by Oct. 20, 2017.

Questions about the position and letters of recommendation should be addressed to Dr. Megan Shaine at psychandcoun@hood.edu.

Hood College is a liberal arts college of 2,400 undergraduate and graduate students with 14 graduate programs located in Frederick, Maryland, 45 minutes from Washington, D.C. and Baltimore. Hood College is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.