Position Summary Information

Mission

We are a community committed to preparing students to be educated and enlightened citizens who lead productive and meaningful lives.

Vision

To be the national model for the engaged university: engages with ideas and the world.

About James Madison University

Who We Are

Established in 1908, James Madison University is a comprehensive public institution offering undergraduate, masters and doctoral programs to more than 20,000 students. JMU is regarded as one of the finest regional universities in the nation and has been continuously cited in U.S. News and World Report, Changing Times and Money Magazine as an outstanding public university. Located in the heart of Virginia's beautiful Shenandoah Valley, the city of Harrisonburg is approximately 120 miles from Washington, D.C. and Richmond, VA. Known for its livability, diversity, local food, arts and natural surroundings, this Virginia Main Street community is a great place to live and work.

General Information

The Counseling Programs at James Madison University are seeking an exceptional Counselor Educator to join the award-winning faculty in the Department of Graduate Psychology. Our programs include two CACREP-accredited master's-level programs—Clinical Mental Health Counseling and School Counseling—as well as a Ph.D. in Counseling and Supervision. The full-time (10 month), tenure track position will start in August, 2018, and will be filled at the rank of Assistant Professor.

Duties and Responsibilities

Responsibilities include teaching and supervising students, contributing across programs as a committed mentor, and serving on and chairing research projects and dissertation committees. The candidate will have opportunities to be integrally involved in all the Counseling Programs, as well as opportunities for professional development and leadership roles. The successful candidate will share our philosophy that cultivating the personhood of the student-counselor is corollary to academic instruction. We therefore seek a candidate committed to joining and fostering a culture that promotes both the personal growth and professional development of our students.

Qualifications

The successful applicant will possess a doctorate degree in Counselor Education and Supervision from a CACREP-accredited program and be a Licensed Professional Counselor (or license eligible) in Virginia. The ability to document two or more years of teaching and service within a master's or doctoral program is preferred. A strong identity as a counselor educator with an interest in program leadership as well as teaching and mentoring students at the master's and doctoral level is important. Evidence of strong clinical skills, as well as ability to teach a variety of core courses at the master's and doctoral level, is essential.

Criminal Background

Employment is contingent upon the successful completion of a criminal background check.
