

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION & HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

LAMAR UNIVERSITY[™]

Department of Counseling and Special Populations

Position Announcement
Tenure-Track Positions: Assistant Professor of Counseling

The Department of Counseling and Special Populations seeks highly qualified candidates to fill two full-time, tenure-track positions at the rank of Assistant Professor in Counseling. The successful candidates will teach on-campus and online graduate classes in the counseling core in clinical mental health counseling and/or school counseling courses. Start date could be as soon as January 2018 (preferred) or June 2018.

Home to over 15,000 students, Lamar University, located near Houston in Beaumont, TX, is among the fastest growing Texas colleges and universities, and is a member of The Texas State University System. Lamar University is internationally recognized for its high-quality academics, innovative curriculum, diverse student population, accessibility, and leading edge scholarly activities dedicated to transforming the communities of Southeast Texas and beyond. Lamar University offers more than 100 programs of study leading to bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees. The 270-acre campus in Beaumont, Texas is approximately 90 miles east of Houston and 25 miles west of Louisiana.

The university is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS). The College of Education and Human Development and the School Counseling Program is accredited by NCATE/CAEP. The Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program is accredited by CACREP.

The Counseling Faculty at Lamar University is a dynamic, engaged group of professionals who have been awarded at the national level in 2017 (ACA and ACES) as well as the state level and regional levels. Faculty are leaders for online learning via innovation, quality matters, and active in scholarship with numerous books, chapters, and original research publications. In addition to teaching and research, faculty assist in the coordination of the counseling programs; supervise master's level students; and fulfill service responsibilities to the department, college, university and counseling profession. Candidates will be expected to work in collaboration with other colleagues in the College of Education and Human Development and with community partners.

Minimum Qualifications:

- An earned doctorate in Counselor Education
- Commitment to the professional field of counselor education as evidenced by education, teaching, research, and professional affiliations, such as ACA, ACES, ASCA
- Experience teaching graduate level courses
- Commitment to diversity

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION & HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

LAMAR UNIVERSITY[™]

Department of Counseling and Special Populations

Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience in online education
- Experience in school counseling or community agencies
- Licensure, certification, or other credential in Texas or other state

Review of applications will start immediately and will continue until the positions are filled. Please visit our website at <http://www.lamar.edu> for more information. This position is security-sensitive and thereby subject to the provisions of the Texas Education Code §51.215, which authorizes the employer to obtain criminal history record information.

Interested candidates should apply online at <https://jobs.lamar.edu/> and include curriculum vitae, statement of teaching and research interests, and three references. If you have any questions about the positions, please contact the search committee chairperson Dr. Lisa Wines at lisa.wines@lamar.edu or the Department of Counseling and Special Populations 409-880-8978.