Assistant Professor of Counseling Instruction
The University of Akron
 Akron, OH

The School of Counseling at The University of Akron is seeking applicants for a full-time Assistant Professor of Counseling Instruction non-tenure track and continuing bargaining unit faculty position in the Clinical Mental Health Counseling Master's Program beginning Fall 2018 semester.

The primary purpose of this position is teaching didactic and/or clinical coursework and providing instructional support and service in the CACREP-accredited Clinical Mental Health Counseling Master's Program, and secondarily in the Counselor Education and Supervision Doctoral Program (Counselor Education track) as needed.

Qualifications:

- Ph.D. in Counselor Education and Supervision, preferably from a CACREP-accredited program
- Licensed or license eligible as an Ohio Licensed Professional Counselor or Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor
- Experience working with counseling graduate students in instruction, supervision, and/or mentoring activities
- Involvement in or affiliation with counseling-related organizations preferred
- Successful use of technology in classroom instruction preferred

Application Materials:

Cover letter of interest describing qualifications for position; complete and current curriculum vitae; evidence of effective graduate-level instruction (e.g., student evaluations, example syllabi, academic colleague evaluations); names and contact information for three professional references. ABD will be considered but a Ph.D. must be conferred prior to the position start date (follow-up confirmation from the dissertation chairperson stating that the dissertation defense has been scheduled may be required).
