The School of Counseling at The University of Akron is seeking applicants for a full-time Assistant Professor of Counseling Instruction non-tenure track and continuing bargaining unit faculty position in the School Counseling Master's Program beginning Fall 2018 semester.

The primary purpose of this position is teaching didactic and/or clinical coursework and providing instructional support and service in the CACREP-accredited School Counseling Master's Program, and secondarily in the Counselor Education and Supervision Doctoral Program (Counselor Education track) as needed.

Qualifications:

- Ph.D. in Counselor Education and Supervision, preferably from a CACREP-accredited program
- Licensed as an Ohio School Counselor or the ability to obtain licensure
- Familiarity with the American School Counselor Association's national model
- Evidence of successful instruction, supervision, and mentoring activities with graduate counseling students (e.g., past year syllabi, student evaluations, peer evaluations)

Preferred Qualifications:

- Involvement in or affiliation with school counseling-related organizations
- Leadership and advocacy in the field of school counseling
- Successful use of technology in classroom instruction
- Licensed as an Ohio School Counselor or the ability to obtain licensure

Application Materials:

Cover letter of interest describing qualifications for position; complete and current curriculum vitae; evidence of effective graduate-level instruction (e.g., student evaluations, example syllabi, academic colleague evaluations); names and contact information for three professional references. ABD will be considered but a Ph.D. must be conferred prior to the position start date (follow-up confirmation from the dissertation chairperson stating that the dissertation defense has been scheduled may be required).
