

The University of Alabama, Assistant Professor of Counselor Education, School Counseling (Tenure Track)

The University of Alabama, Alabama's flagship university, is a comprehensive institution whose mission is to advance the intellectual and social condition of the people of the State and the nation through quality programs of teaching, research, and service. The College of Education maintains a large array of degree programs and is heavily involved in research and outreach activities throughout the Southeast region. The College seeks energetic, creative and intellectually-empowered faculty members with strong research pedigrees who can contribute to the mission of the College and help to advance its growing national prominence.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Earned doctorate in Counselor Education with specialty preparation in school counseling from a CACREP accredited program (degree earned by date of hire).
- Professional experience and training as a school counselor in K-12 schools.
- Knowledge, skills, and training in school counseling curriculum and ability to provide clinical supervision to Master's, Ed.S., and doctoral level students.
- Expertise in counselor training and supervision with ability to teach practicum and doctoral supervision.
- Work experience and interest in teaching school specialty and core counseling courses
- Experience and ability to teach campus and distance courses

Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience in teaching as a faculty member, graduate teaching assistant, or doctoral intern within a counselor education program
- Willingness to coordinate the school counseling program
- National Certified Counselor, NCC
- A record of research productivity

Responsibilities:

- Teach graduate courses in both school counselor education and general counselor education curriculum.
- Develop and pursue a sustained research agenda resulting in publications and external funding
- Participate in program initiatives, advising, and faculty decisions

Further information about the program and college is accessible at www.education.ua.edu and <http://education.ua.edu/academics/esprmc>.

Questions regarding this position can be directed to Dr. Joy Burnham at jburnham@ua.edu.

Salary: Commensurate with qualifications and experience

Starting Date: August 16, 2018

Benefits:

- Health and Life Insurance
- TIAA-CREF available
- Teachers' Retirement System of Alabama
- Summer employment available on an as needed basis

Application Deadline: The review of credentials will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

Application Process: Please apply online at <https://facultyjobs.ua.edu>. A letter of application, vita, names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three references, unofficial transcript(s) of all graduate level coursework, and up to three samples of professional writing are required to complete the online application process.

Prior to hiring, the final candidate must successfully pass a pre-employment background investigation and submit "official" transcript(s) of all graduate level coursework.

The University of Alabama is an Equal Employment/Equal Educational Opportunity Institution. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, genetic information, disability, or protected veteran status, and will not be discriminated against because of their protected status. Applicants to and employees of this institution are protected under Federal law from discrimination on several bases.