

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR IN CLINICAL MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING

The Department of Counseling at The University of Texas at San Antonio invites applications for two tenure track full-time positions in Clinical Mental Health Counseling starting in the fall of 2018. The Department of Counseling houses CACREP accredited M.S., M.Ed., and Ph.D. Programs. We are a vibrant, collegial faculty whose mission encompasses the fostering of creativity, diversity, and relational development.

Responsibilities: Conducting and publishing research in counseling journals; teaching master's and doctoral courses primarily in clinical mental health counseling and counselor education and supervision, typically offered in the evening, at either the UTSA Downtown Campus or Main Campus; writing grant proposals; collaborating with colleagues; advising students; and performing service activities.

Required Qualifications: Doctorate from a CACREP accredited Counselor Education Program to be completed by August 31, 2018; professional counseling identity; demonstrated teaching and research potential; experience as a mental health counselor; and experience with and/or knowledge of culturally diverse populations.

Preferred Qualifications: Eligibility for the Texas Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) credential and Texas Licensed Professional Counselor Supervisor (LPC –S) credential; bilingual in Spanish and English; a record of publications; quantitative data analysis experience, and a record of obtaining external funding.

To apply, please submit a) an original signed letter of application that summarizes your qualifications for the position, b) a current vita, c) contact information for three references who may be contacted immediately, and d) a minimum of one and up to three professional writing samples. Writing samples may include, but are not limited to, scholarly publications, newsletters, chapters of a dissertation, or portfolio samples.

Please submit application materials online at: <https://jobs.utsa.edu/>

Review of applications will begin immediately upon receipt and continue until the position is filled.

UTSA is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Women, minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply. Applicants who are selected for interviews must be able to show proof that they will be eligible and qualified to work in the U.S. by the time of hire.
