

Department of Educational Studies

Assistant Professor of Counselor Education

The Counselor Education Program in the Department of Educational Studies at the University of South Carolina invites applications for a full-time Assistant Professor (tenure track) in Counselor Education with preferred expertise in Clinical Mental Health Counseling. The anticipated start date for the successful applicant is August 2018.

Qualifications:

Candidates should have: (1) an earned doctorate in Counselor Education, preferably from a CACREP-accredited doctoral program (current counselor educators with other doctoral training and at least one year of experience working in a Counselor Education program prior to 2013 will be considered); (2) a track record of R1 level scholarship and potential for obtaining external funding; (3) experience teaching and supervising in counselor education; (4) licensed or license-eligible as a Licensed Professional Counselor in South Carolina; and (5) experience and commitment to diversity training and working with diverse populations.

Responsibilities:

The successful applicant will: (1) pursue a line of research leading to publication and external funding; (2) provide leadership in the Clinical Mental Health Counseling degree track; (3) teach core and specialty courses in the entry-level programs and doctoral program in Counselor Education and Supervision; (4) serve on doctoral committees and advise entry-level students; (5) serve on program, department, college, and university committees.

Application:

Application information and a link to the application portal will be available soon. Check the USC College of Education website for updates http://www.sc.edu/study/colleges\_schools/education/ For questions about the position, contact the search chair, Dr. Ryan Carlson through email at rcarlson@sc.edu

The University of South Carolina has a strong commitment to the principles of diversity and is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer. Minorities, women, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply. The University embraces family-friendly policies that provide a work environment and an academic culture supportive of faculty members and their families.