

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI-ST. LOUIS
College of Education
Assistant or Associate Professor / School Counseling

SCHOOL COUNSELING/ASSISTANT OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: The Counseling Program at the University of Missouri-St. Louis seeks applications for a full-time, tenure track Assistant or Associate Professor position. Applicants must have an earned doctorate in counselor education or a related field from an accredited university (ABD will be given consideration). The ability to teach a broad spectrum of graduate courses in school counseling and career counseling, demonstrated potential for scholarly research and publication, and strong potential for securing outside grants to provide funding for research are preferred.

The position requires teaching, supervising practica/internships, conducting research, publishing, writing grants, participating in service activities, advising students, and having a strong commitment to cultural diversity and social justice. School counseling experience along with certification/licensure eligibility in Missouri are also preferred.

This is a benefits-eligible, full-time, tenure-track, nine-month position with an anticipated start for the 2018-2019 academic year (August, 2018). Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience.

The College of Education offers CACREP-accredited master's degrees in school counseling and clinical mental health counseling as well as a CACREP-accredited PhD program in counselor education.

Applications received by November 1, 2017 will receive priority; however, applications will be accepted until the position is filled. The Counseling Program desires to enhance the diversity of its faculty and programs and encourages applications from underrepresented groups.

Applicants must apply online at www.umsl.jobs and are required to submit a cover letter, CV, statement concerning applicant's research interests, three letters of recommendation, and unofficial copies of transcripts in a single .pdf or Word file. Please upload document under the section for "RESUME". Applications received through other sources will not be considered.

Interested individuals who have questions may contact Dr. Susan Kashubeck-West, Chair, Search Committee, Department of Education Sciences and Professional Programs, University of Missouri-St. Louis, One University Boulevard, St. Louis, MO 63121-4400, USA. The University of Missouri-St. Louis is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer committed to excellence through diversity.