

Ursuline College
Counseling and Art Therapy Department
Pepper Pike, OH (Greater Cleveland Area)

Faculty Position

Ursuline College, a small liberal arts college located on a tranquil campus outside of Cleveland, Ohio, is seeking a full-time faculty member to assume teaching and advising responsibilities in its graduate Counseling and Art Therapy Program beginning August 15, 2018. The program provides education and training in clinical mental health counseling and art therapy, is CACREP accredited and approved by the Ohio Counselor Board and the American Art Therapy Association. The program is seeking a candidate who can provide both counseling and art therapy education. Tenure/non-tenure track TBD, rank commensurate with experience.

Required Qualifications:

- Doctorate in Counselor Education (OR full time faculty member in a counselor education program for a minimum of one full academic year before July 1, 2013 with a Doctorate in Art Therapy or related field.)
- Active participation in state, national, and local professional organizations
- Evidence of continuing scholarly work and research agenda
- Competence in teaching
- Licensed PCC or license eligible in Ohio, preferably with supervisory status
- ATR-BC

Preferred Qualifications:

- Strong organizational skills
- Research grant writing experience
- Experience in trauma and addictions services a plus

Candidates must have excellent communication skills, flexibility, mature judgment, and a commitment to teaching in a creative, collaborative and values-based environment with a focus on promoting individual student success.

Responsibilities include:

- Teaching graduate level counseling courses
- Advising students and participating in student candidate interviews
- Participating in college committee work
- Assisting with departmental responsibilities such as accreditation, curriculum and program development, practicum and internship, thesis, and fulfilling other duties as assigned

For full consideration, interested applicants should submit a curriculum vita, official copies of all university transcripts, three letters of professional reference and a letter of application that includes the applicant's philosophy of teaching. Applications may be submitted to:

James V. Connell, Ph.D., Dean of Graduate and Professional Studies via Jo Mann at jmann@ursuline.edu

Application reviews and interviews will start immediately and continue until the position is filled. Ursuline College is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer committed to diversity and seeking application from underrepresented groups.